

Moline and East Moline

FOR ENTERS
DENIAL STORY OF FINES PLAN

Woman Brands as Falsehood
Assertion That East Moline
Accepts Botting Money.

East Moline, Nov. 11.—Editor The Argus: I wish to throw a little light on the article which appeared in your paper last evening purporting to be an interview with Ben DeJager, Moline's chief of police, by some mysterious person said to be a proprietor of the Moline soft drink parlors in which it was stated that the officials of this city were allowing proprietors of soft drink parlors to pay monthly fines of from $100 to $200 for violating city ordinances relating to the sale of liquor. The records of the police department, also the records of the police magistrate's office and the records of the justice of the peace of this city are open for inspection, and these records prove this to be a willful falsehood. It has always been the policy of East Moline to maintain friendly relations with her sister cities, and attend strictly to her own affairs, taking it for granted that in our city limits our services were required.

The people of East Moline have been very generous in furthering any plans to build up this feeling of cooperation between Moline and our city. The Community league, the Red Cross and other projects with headquarters in Moline have received generous support from us, and it is about time that this city receive some credit, and not so much blaming from our neighbors. We are able to care for our own affairs and to even change our name if Moline fears the similarity of names might cause embarrassment when she steps out in society. I do not believe that the public will take much stock in this "Holler than thou" stuff, especially those that have been campaigning recently in the holy town. Therefore, we are no better and no worse than our neighbors.

Yours truly,
G. F. JOHNSON, Mayor.

SANITARIUM BODY
REORGANIZED AND EXTENSIONS MADE

Improvements and enlargements of the Tri-City Sanitarium, 1213 Fifteenth street, including complete reorganization of the hospital staff, were announced today by the management.

H. C. Butler is business manager and Dr. F. C. Oels will be in charge of the medical department. The capacity of the institution has been considerably enlarged. Charles A. Peterson, recently associated with the Battle Creek sanitarium, has been placed in charge of the men's bathroom. A specialty will be made of treatments in hydrotherapy and massage.

Miss Nina Fleetwood of Chamberlain, S. D., and Miss Mildred Imsheweller, a graduate of the Hinsdale sanitarium, are in charge of the women's treatment room.

Miss Zella Miller of Wichita, Kan., has been appointed superintendent of nurses. It is announced that only graduate nurses will be employed at the hospital.

COLLECTS GARBAGE
FOR THE LAST TIME

Garbage in the residence districts of Moline will be collected for the last time this week according to an announcement made today by Levia Lindblad, city health inspector.

After the present collections have been made the garbage cans will be turned upside down as notice to the householder that final collection has been made. Garbage must then be burned. Mr. Lindblad stated, and added that persons who throw rubbish in the alleys will be prosecuted.

The health department will continue to gather garbage in the downtown districts and from schools, restaurants and hotels. Only one wagon will be affected by the order, which is due entirely to weather conditions. That wagon will be used to collect rubbish instead of garbage.

ELKS TO OCCUPY
COOPER HOME BY FIRST OF YEAR

Lodge Plans to Remodel Residence
Into Club Rooms Until New Home Is Built.

Moline Elks will move into their newly purchased home, the Cooper residence, 1714 Sixth avenue, before the end of the year, officers of the club stated today.

The Elks recently purchased the property from H. W. Cooper with the intention of constructing a new lodge hall there. Erection of a hall will probably be started within three years, high price of building material and financial standing of the club at present making such an undertaking impossible.

W. B. Schulze, architect, is making a survey of the Cooper residence today to determine what changes will have to be made in the house before it will be suitable for club rooms. The Cooper family plan to vacate the house by Dec. 1 and remodeling will be started at that time.

CLUBS JOIN IN ARMISTICE DAY
CLUB LUNCHEON

Rotary, Kiwanis and Ad Club Members
Hear Speakers—Support
Boy Scout Budget.

With no general arrangement for an Armistice day celebration in Moline today the members of the Moline Rotary club, the Kiwanis club and the Ad club joined in an Armistice day luncheon at midday at the Moline club and gave considerable time to speakers who devoted themselves to remarks commemorating the end of strife of the war years.

Mayor C. P. Skinner presided. The mayor declared that he regretted it very much that no organization or group of organizations of Moline had shown sufficient interest in Armistice day to arrange for a fitting general celebration.

Dr. A. S. Kohler, who saw service in the Argonne, was one of the principal speakers. The members enjoyed the session and it seemed to be the consensus that Moline should take steps to have a general celebration next year and the years to follow.

For Boy Scout Budget.
A Boy Scout budget of $12,000 was approved and the members of the Rotary club and the Kiwanis club pledged to take subscriptions amounting to $60 for every member.

Moline Lodges

Ed Kittelsen camp, United Spanish War Veterans, had an enthusiastic session last evening in the hall and members voted on two applications. These candidates will be accepted at the next regular meeting, at which time other business matters will be taken care of.

Columbia auxiliary No. 14, U. S. A. W. held its session in a room adjoining that of the camp, and afterward the camp and auxiliary united in enjoying a social time. Announcement was made by the auxiliary that the state president, Mrs. Eugenia Franks of Rock Island, will be present at the next session, Nov. 24, to inspect the work of the auxiliary. A large turnout will be expected on that evening. Refreshments probably will be served in honor of the state president's visit.

SAYS MILKMEN
FILL BOTTLES
MAKING ROUNDS

Inspector Starts Campaign Against
Careless Dealers to Protect City's Health.

Strict enforcement of ordinances prohibiting distribution of milk in any containers save standard bottles will be one of the many measures taken by Health Inspector Lindblad to protect Moline against epidemics this winter.

Because of other more pressing business, Inspector Lindblad has not had an opportunity to see if this important ordinance is being observed, but he announced today that enforcement measures will be taken soon.

The inspector declared that he believed it to be the practice of some distributors to fill bottles in the wagons while they were making the rounds of customers and added that frequently unsterilized bottles were filled.

Peddlers thoughtlessly or unintentionally take bottles from houses where there are contagious diseases, he also asserted. Sometimes, according to Mr. Lindblad, these bottles are filled with milk immediately after being taken from those quarantined houses. Epidemics in Moline have been traced to this source before and Mr. Lindblad is determined that they will have no chance to start from similar sources again.

RETIRED FIREMAN
RECALLS LIVELIER
DAYS IN E. MOLINE

Louis Bornhoft, East Moline fireman, an employee of the city more than fourteen years, tendered his resignation to Mayor G. F. Johnson yesterday, to become effective about Nov. 16. Mr. Bornhoft expects to be connected with the Northwestern Milling company, with offices at Ninth street, East Moline, in future.

East Moline is a quiet, peace-loving city now, but Louis remembers the days back in 1905 when there was never a night without a fight or disturbance of some kind in the foreign districts. That was when the pastures began at Seventh street and board sidewalks flanked with weeds six feet high served pedestrians in the downtown district. Louis was then chief of police, fireman, inspector of outbuildings, scavenger and general all-around.

"There wasn't any hanging around the station in those days," Mr. Bornhoft stated. "There were too many scraps going on. Our population was of the floating variety, here today and gone tomorrow. We didn't have any time to bother with drunks or half of the petty cases that come up in court now."

ROOMER FINED FOR VIOLENT THREATS
TOWARD LANDLORD

Theodore Deckers, a roomer at 651 Sixteenth avenue, was fined $10 and costs before Justice Dan Mackell today on a charge of disorderly conduct preferred by his landlord, A. M. Childress.

The trouble seems to have started over a revolver which was stolen from Deckers' room. Deckers accused Childress of taking the weapon and attempted to search Childress's house. When ordered out of the place, Childress asserts, Deckers threatened him with violence.

Deckers was arrested early in the evening and spent the night in jail.

DIPHTHERIA SPREADING.

Harold Samuelson, 22 years old, a cigar clerk residing in the Poole building, is the latest diptheria victim in Moline. His is the second case to be reported this week, the other being that of Miss Betty Miller, a first grade teacher at Logan school.

In the Logan school district authorities believe they have checked the spread of the disease but are alarmed at its outbreak in the downtown district.

Renewed warning to sufferers of sore throat or those displaying such symptoms, usually the first symptoms of diphtheria, was issued by health officers today.

MANY SEE VIEWS OF PILGRIM'S LANDING

The story of the landing of the Pilgrims, with stereoscopic views representing their life both in England and in the new England, was told at the First Congregational church Sunday school room last night by Rev. P. C. Iadd, pastor. The lecture, which described the 60 slides used in the talk, is the one being used in a nationwide ter-centennial celebration of the Mayflower landing and was arranged by the church national committee. The lecture, in addition to its historical significance, told of religious and political changes in England which incited the colonists to seek a land of free worship on this continent.

An audience of 150 heard the lecture.

TRUCK DRIVERS FINED.

R. Feeney and R. Zuber, truck drivers, were fined $3 and costs today by Magistrate A. A. Niles in East Moline police court for violation of traffic ordinances.

Both were arrested yesterday on Thirtieth street and Eighteenth avenue by Chief T. J. Schaefer for blocking the street. They were taken to the police station but released on $10 bonds.

WHEAT PRICES
UNDERGO SHARP
MORNING FALL

Chicago, Nov. 11.—Wheat underwent a sharp setback in prices today owing chiefly to the fact that no fresh export demand was in evidence. It was said the British Royal commission had failed to accept overnight offers. Sentiment became generally bearish and speculators sold freely. Opening prices, which varied from 1½c lower to ¼c advance, with December 1.86½ to 1.87, and March 1.80 to 1.81, were followed by decided breaks all around, and then something of a rally.

Subsequently liquidation on the part of discouraged holders brought about new declines, with attention focused a good deal on bearish views of general business conditions. The close was nervous, 5½c to 7½c net lower, with December at 1.80½ to 1.80¾ and March at 1.74 to 1.74½.

Corn received inadequate support. After opening unchanged to ½c higher, December 79½c to 79¾c, the market suffered a substantial decline.

Perfect weather for husking counted later as a bearish factor, and the market dropped to the lowest level yet this season. Closing quotations were weak, 2½c to 3½c net lower with December 76½c to 76¾c.

Oats sagged with other cereals, starting ½c off to ¼c higher, May 56½c to 56¾c, and then showing a general sag.

Weakness of grain and hogs had a depressing effect on provisions.

SHIPPING AND OIL GAINS GIVE WAY TO BREAKS

New York, Nov. 11.—Leaders of the oil, shipping and equipment divisions increased their gains in the first hour of trading on the stock market today, but the entire list gave way before noon when Atlantic Gulf and Southern Pacific broke sharply. The decline in Atlantic Gulf extended to almost five points and Southern Pacific's reaction of 2½ points was accompanied by rumors of a hitch in the proposed segregation plans. Motor shares also weakened on heavy selling of Willys Overland common and preferred, the latter losing four points. Bull pools were active in tobacco and textiles, but food shares reflected yesterday's cut in the American Sugar dividend. British and French exchange were lower and call money opened at 9 per cent.

TODAY IN ALEDO
AND MERCER COUNTYINSTITUTE TO COMMENCE ON NEXT TUESDAY

Good Speakers Will Talk at Farmers' Institute Planned for Next Week.

Next Tuesday is to be the opening day of the farmers' institute in Mercer county Nov. 16, 17, 18 and 19. Both the Mercer county farm bureau and the home bureau will cooperate in making the institute a success.

The schedule arranged for the institute is as follows:

Aledo—Nov. 16.

New Boston—Nov. 17.

Sherard—Nov. 18.

North Henderson—Nov. 19.

Speakers are as follows:

W. E. Riegel—16th and 17th, morning and afternoon.

Dr. Eva M. Wilson—16th and 17th, morning and afternoon.

Professor W. P. Flint—18th and 19th, morning and afternoon.

Mrs. H. M. Dunlap—18th and 19th, morning and afternoon.

W. P. Flint—Mr. Flint is assistant state entomologist and is well known throughout Illinois. His work as assistant to Dr. Forbes has brought him to the attention of a large number of farmers and orchardists in almost every locality. He is an expert along entomology and is extremely practical when it comes to applying methods of insect and disease prevention. Mr. Flint is a very popular institute lecturer and never fails to please all who hear him. His talks are filled with practical suggestions of how to fight the insect pest, plant diseases, etc., in the garden and on the farm. No one should fail to hear Mr. Flint.

W. E. RIEGEL—As a practical farmer Mr. Riegel has made a notable success along soil improvement lines. He knows how to grow profitable crops, including livestock, and at the same time build up the fertility of his soil. His experience is worth much to other farmers, and this is what he gives to the institute work he is doing. There is always something of practical value in his addresses for both the land operator and farmer. Go to hear him. It will prove beneficial to you from a practical farming standpoint.

DR. EVA M. WILSON—Dr. Eva M. Wilson of Manhattan, Ill., vice president of the department of household science, is one of the most prominent workers in the state for home and community betterment. She, with her husband and three young sons, lives on a farm and her home is an example of a cooperative family. During the busiest farm season she has time to assist with the planting and harvesting of crops and works from fifteen to eighteen hours a day to perform her many duties.

Dr. Wilson has been a practicing physician for 22 years, and her heart is ever in her work relieving suffering humanity. During the war she served on the examining board in her county. She has been actively engaged in framing health laws for rural communities and believes in bringing higher health standards before them. She is making child welfare a prominent study in her locality. She is vitally interested in school work and health in Illinois.

Dr. Wilson has a message which she gives to the men and women of the state in earnest, forceful manner. She practices what she preaches, and the people of the county should not fail to hear her.

MRS. H. M. DUNLAP—Mrs. H. M. Dunlap needs no introduction to the people of Illinois, for she is well known as one of the leading pioneers in household science work. She was one of the first women to speak before a farmers' institute and was a member of the committee which suggested and planned the state fair domestic science school, now such a wonderful organization for the education of young women. For years Mrs. Dunlap appeared before the legislature in the interest of the University of Illinois and asked for appropriations to further household science work for the women of Illinois.

She served three years as president of the department of household science, the auxiliary of the farmers' institute, and many things have been accomplished through her efforts. Her life is given in serving the women of the state and inspiring them to be better home makers. Her rural home is visited by people not only from Illinois but from many states, for it stands among the most beautiful and thoroughly equipped modern homes.

Mrs. Dunlap served her state during the recent great war as chairman of food production, woman's division, council of defense.

At present she is president of the home bureau in her county and district chairman of the Republican women's organization. She has been invited to serve on the national board of Republican speakers, this making her work nationwide.

Her lectures are given in a most enthusiastic manner. She is "at home" with her audience, for she talks to them from personal experience as a farmer's wife. Mrs. Dunlap puts herself into her work. She belongs to the people of Illinois, but her services are asked for in many states.
